Nora Unitarian Universalist Church
January 2012

VIEW FROM THE HILL

If you haven't yet made your New Year's resolutions, or have room on your list for one more, I invite you to make church a resolution.

- Resolve to attend Sunday service regularly, regardless of who's preaching or what the announced topic. Sundays at Nora offer so much food for the spirit (and sometimes body).
- Resolve to pay your pledge promptly and in full. When the financial canvass comes around in the spring sign your name to a pledge that is both realistic and generous so that Nora's leaders can budget for next year with a well-informed sense of abundance.
- Resolve to talk about church. Tell friends and neighbors and co-workers where you worship and why. Invite them to service. Write a letter to the editor, stating, "As a Unitarian Universalist I believe XYZ is one of the most vital issues of the day...".
- Resolve to visit Nora members residing in Luther Memorial Home in Madelia and Divine Providence Nursing Home in Sleepy Eye. Bring along a friend.
- Resolve to tell the board you have a great idea for a program and want to organize it. I promise they'll give you a green light.
- Resolve to check out uua.org, psduua.org, and uuworld.org. Like them on Facebook. Like Nora church on Facebook, too, once our page is up.
- Resolve to join the choir. We have openings in all sections.

Yes, it is my job (one of them) to safeguard and facilitate the stability and vitality of the church as a whole. But it is also my job (one of them) to be your pastor, and it is in this latter capacity that I invite you to consider these resolutions. Church is good for you, and is so often the case, the more you put into it, the more you get out of it. Regular, engaged participation binds you more closely to the church. All things in moderation, of course. Don't burn yourself out doing the work of the church. But in general, if you've been generous with your time, your participation, your volunteer efforts, your financial support, you will experience greater contentment when you sink into the pew or gather around the potluck table. Your spirit will be open to the workings of mystery and the company of beloved church friends.

Give it a try in 2012. Give yourself to the church and then let the church give back to you.

Happy New Year!
-Lisa

"Thoughts for the new year"

I Believe...
That just because two people argue,
It doesn't mean they don't love each other.
And just because they don't argue,
It doesn't mean they do love each other.
I Believe...
That we don't have to change friends if
We understand that friends change.
I Believe...
That no matter how good a friend is,
they're going to hurt you,
every once in a while
and you must forgive them for that.
I Believe....
That true friendship continues to grow,
even over the longest distance.
Same goes for true love.
I Believe...
That you can do something in an instant
That will give you heartache for life.
I Believe...
That it's taking me a long time
To become the person I want to be.
I Believe...
That you should always leave
loved ones with Loving words.
It may be the last time you see them.
I Believe...
That you can keep going
long after you think you can't.
I Believe...
That we are responsible for what
We do, no matter how we feel.
I Believe...
That either you control your attitude
or it controls you.
I Believe....
That heroes are the people
who do what has to be done
when it needs to be done,
regardless of the consequences.
I Believe...
That my best friend and I can do anything or nothing
and have the best time..
I Believe...
That sometimes the people
you expect to kick you
when you're down
will be the ones to help you get back up.

I Believe...
That sometimes when I'm angry
I have the right to be angry, but that doesn't give me the right to be cruel.
I Believe...
That maturity has more to do with what types of experiences you've had
And what you've learned from them and less to do with how many birthdays you've celebrated.
I Believe....
That it isn't always enough,
to be forgiven by others.
Sometimes, you have to learn to forgive yourself.
I Believe...
That no matter how bad
your heart is broken,
the world doesn't stop for your grief.
I Believe...
That our background and circumstances may have influenced who we are, but,
we are responsible for who we become.
I Believe...
That you shouldn't be
so eager to find out a secret.
It could change your life forever.
I Believe...
Two people can look at the exact same thing and see something totally different.
I Believe...
That your life can be changed
in a matter of hours
by people who don't even know you.
I Believe...
That even when you think you have no more to give,
When a friend cries out to you,
you will find the strength to help.
I Believe...
That credentials on the wall
do not make you a decent human being.
I Believe...
That the people you care about most in life
are taken from you too soon.

*'The happiest of people don't necessarily have the best of everything;
They just make the most of everything they have.'*
