Nora Services Resume

A View From the Hill

Roaming UU season has begun again.

As the weather turns warm and the last possibility of frost recedes, I often glance out the parsonage window to notice an unfamiliar car in the drive and unfamiliar folks peering through the windows of the museum, trying the door of the church. I’m always happy to greet these Unitarian Universalist tourists. I open the museum and the church. I answer questions about Nora Church history and our congregational life. And I ask questions—how did the visitors find their way to us and which church do they call home? We exchange a few rounds of do-you-know-the-UU?

To a one, these roaming Unitarian Universalists are charmed—at the beauty of our hill and the prairie vista; at the story of our 135 year UU church so far away from New England or a university town or other more typical home of Unitarian Universalism; at the loveliness of our building; at the quaint and curious and commonplace objects in the museum.

I love our church, our grounds, our view, our story and our history. I’m amazed and grateful for the opportunity to live and serve here. I offer my thanksgiving nearly every day. But I’m like anyone else; it’s easy for me to take for granted the places and people and institutions I see or participate in on a daily or weekly basis. This church or my family or the guys who grade the road. So I’m grateful to the roaming UUs who allow me to see all this beauty, all this holiness, through their eyes.

Babies and small children, too, are good at loaning us their eyes, their wondering, wandering attention, inviting us to see and experience our days and our surrounding in new ways. So are pets and visitors from other lands or cultures. During this roaming season, with long, light-filled days and ice-free roads, may you encounter beings who invite you to see your habitual surroundings with renewed awe and appreciation. And may you be such an invitation to others along the paths of your own roaming.

See you in church on June 5 and 12, and at Lake Hanska Park on June 19. Then we’ll gather at Nobles County Pioneer Village on August 14 and back at church on August 21.

-Lisa

Notes on June Services

The Annual Meeting of Nora Church will follow immediately upon conclusion of the service on Sunday, June 5. We will elect trustees, approve the 2016/2017 budget, discuss possible alternative starting time for Sunday services, and undertake any other business that comes before the congregation.

The President of the congregation will not entertain a motion to change start times at this meeting. Rather, a lively discussion of the best time to start Sunday services will allow the board consider the matter at greater length sometime in the coming year, with input from the congregation on such questions as:

- would an earlier start time generate more frequent attendance among younger members (and others) who like to get on with other Sunday activities before midday?
- would an earlier start time so severely cut into practice time that a choir would no longer be feasible?
- are there creative alternatives to weekly, pre-service choir practice? simpler pieces that could be practiced one Sunday after service and sung in service the next week? others?

- what would an earlier start time mean in terms of potluck?
- how would an earlier start time affect our more far-flung members?
- has time and experience proven conclusively that 10:30 is the only acceptable start time for our service?

The service on Sunday, June 12 will include our annual Flower Ceremony. Please remember to bring a flower or flowering branch for each member of your family attending service that morning. You won't want to miss the beauty we create together and then carry home with us that morning.

Our service on Sunday, June 19, will take place at Lake Hanska Park, in the shelter located near the fishing pier. Coffee will be available from about 10:00 on. Service at 10:30 followed by potluck lunch. Some of the guys will fire up the grills. Please bring a salad or side dish or dessert, place settings for you and your family, sunscreen, bug repellent and other weather-related necessities. Seating for "church" and lunch will be at picnic tables. Bring along a lawn chair for greater comfort!! Please plan to stay after lunch for boat rides and fishing off the pier.

A Day in June

Lunch Bunch is a monthly, social lunch gathering, open to any Nora members, friends or visitors.

Art with Attitude

Summer meeting for Art with Attitude will continue on Fridays at 10:00 am in the fellowship hall. Create art or just come to have coffee and visit. Bring a bag lunch.

Dates may not fall every other week, due to holidays. The dates are:

- June 3 and 17
- July 8, 15 and 29
- Aug 12 and 26.

Hope to see you! We will be working on tying quilts for NUMAS house. And also working on baby quilts for Brown County Public Health. We will probably start making some small items for the country store. I have a couple of patterns just waiting to be tried!! Everyone is still free to work on their own projects or to come and visit.

Anyone interested in basket making please let me know. I will do two classes and limit each class to six people. Get your name on the list early as I have to order supplies. (I also need to know if you can meet on our regular day or if you would prefer to weave on a Saturday because you're a working person.) I will send out a list of supplies you need to bring later. As soon as I get the sample made I will display it in the social hall at Nora for all to see. July 8 may also be the first class for basket making. Stay tuned for details, a grapevine will be sent out. -Nancy nbrudellie@aol.com

For Once, Then, Something

Robert Frost, 1874 - 1963

Others taunt me with having knelt at well-curbs
Always wrong to the light, so never seeing
Deeper down in the well than where the water
Gives me back in a shining surface picture
Me myself in the summer heaven godlike
Looking out of a wreath of fern and cloud puffs.
Once, when trying with chin against a well-curb,
I discerned, as I thought, beyond the picture,
Through the picture, a something white, uncertain,
Something more of the depths—and then I lost it.
Water came to rebuke the too clear water.
One drop fell from a fern, and lo, a ripple
Shook whatever it was lay there at bottom,
Blurred it, blotted it out. What was that whiteness?
Truth? A pebble of quartz? For once, then, something.

Two Mindful Journeys in 2017, for UUs & their friends

Peru, March 25-April 5, 2017. Our journey will be filled with comfortable places to stay, Shamanic conversations, lovely food, water blessings at an old Inca spring, beautiful natural vistas and reflections while sitting on a mountain top.

Portugal/ Spain, May 14-24, 2017, from Lisbon to Santiago de Compostela. Along the way, we enjoy soulful Fado music, a tile-making workshop, wine, port and culinary tastings, and a bit of a walk on the Camino. Imagine cruising down the Douro River tasting Port while reflecting on the scenic vineyard-covered hillsides.
